

#DAY7JAN

It's going to be a great day and an EASY day.

Use this time to catch up AND think about this simple task and tell me what you are going to do as your 'WEALTH ACTION'

Next your action for today is this

What if you simply BELIEVED that you were the most fortunate, lucky, blessed person on earth?

What if you just KNEW the money was coming- all the time, in large sums?

What would you do differently?

Have you wanted to buy a new car?

Book a test drive.

Want a new house?

Start looking. Get some pictures of houses you love in locations you want.

Want a personal assistant?

Start making enquiries to hire someone

Want more money?

Become the most generous person you know. What can you give more of today?

Want a fabulous Maldives holiday?

Start enquiring.

Let me know what are going to do. Add photos or screenshots below so can see that those abundant brain cells are firing away!!!

ME? I'd love a Spain or Florida based version of Denise Duffield Thomas's house on Oz.
